

The Major County Sheriffs of America held our Winter Conference February 10-12th at the Willard Hotel in Washington, DC with a record number of 65 member offices attending. The conference focused on government affairs, officer wellness and hiring/retention of law enforcement personnel.

Scenes from 2020 WINTER CONFERENCE

(L) Sheriff Judd is shown swearing in some members of the Board of Directors for the new year of service. Shown from left to right are Immediate Past President Sheriff Grady Judd, Vice President Sheriff Mark Napier, Treasurer Bob Gualtieri, Vice President for Legislative Affairs Michael Bouchard and Vice President for Homeland Security Mike Chapman.

(Above) MCSA Immediate Past President Sheriff Grady Judd was feted with a good-natured roast at the Hay Adams Hotel. A fun video started the night with speakers and participants thanking Sheriff Judd for his tenure as President. Shown with Sheriff Judd is his wife Marissa Judd.

(Above) United States Attorney General William Barr is seen addressing the attendees. Attorney General Barr also received the MCSA President's Award for his commitment to the rule of law from Immediate Past President Sheriff Grady Judd.

Sheriff Grady Judd is shown passing the MCSA Presidential gavel to new MCSA President Sheriff Peter J. Koutoujian and administering the oath of office.

(Below) MCSA member spouses and guests are shown in the Hall of Nations at the Kennedy Center prior to their luncheon and the ballet.

(Below) Former Director Juan Perez of the Miami Dade Police Department gave a lively roast of his long-time friend, Sheriff Judd.

(Above) MCSA President Sheriff Peter J. Koutoujian is shown presenting a parting gift to Sheriff Grady Judd for his service as MCSA President.

